

Contents

What are cosmetics?	1
What does a cosmetic scientist do?	2
Episkin-an alternative to animal testing?	3
How to make bath bombs	4
Making a moisturising cream	5
Product development-moisturising cream	6
How do we smell?	7
How does our brain react to different smells?	8
The Forensic scientist and the SOCO	9
Forensic investigation-footprints	10
Forensic investigation-Fibres	11
Forensic investigation-Fingerprints	12
Forensic investigation-Report	13
The Darling Letter-Chromatography 1	14
The Darling Letter-Chromatography 2	15
The Darling Letter-Handwriting analysis	16
About DNA	17
Keeping fit	18
Unhealthy lifestyle-risks	19
Sports persons diet	20
Sports drinks	21
Reaction times	22
The Nervous System	23
Drugs in sport 1	24
Drugs in sport 2	25

Complete

Using pictures from magazines and the internet design and produce a collage to illustrate different product examples from all these categories.

Chose three skin care products and design a questionnaire to find out which products are the most popular and why?

A leading skin care company claims that its product helps your skin to stay softer. Design an experiment you could carry out to verify this claims .

What does a Cosmetic Scientist do?

Different jobs in the cosmetic industry

Complete

